DO NOT TAKE THE LAW INTO YOUR OWN HANDS

St. John chapter 8 verse 4-8 during an early morning sermon at the temple, a group of people come to him and say ' 4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. 5 Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned:but what sayest thou? 6....but Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not. 7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her. 8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground. 9 ... being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one Why did he say so? What was he writing? Perhaps the following two verses will shed some light. St.Matt 5:17 Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil St.Matt 12:39 But he answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous people.. Thus it could be understood that what he uttered was the Law of Moses. Perhaps he was writing the names of these evil people who wanted to punish only the women, (how about the me?).

JUSTICE IS BEYOND BLOOD RELATIONSHIP

Bagawad Geetha 1:1-2, 2:34-37 Gives a detailed account of a war between Kith and Kin Lord Arjun refuses to battle his cousins, and prefers to die. Lord Krishna advises him this is for a just cause although it is against his very own family members, and Every action should be taken for Justice to Prevail.

DO NOT ACT UPON RUMOURS

Kalama Sutra (a few verses that even can be applied to the above situation) Do not believe in anything (simply) because you have heard it. Do not believe in anything because it is spoken and rumoured by many. Do not believe in anything merely on the authority of your teachers and elders. But after observation and analysis when you find that anything agrees with reason and is conducive to the good and benefit of one and all then accept it and live up to it. Buddha (Anguttara Nikaya Vol. 1, 188-193 P.T.S. Ed.).

FAITH ALSO MEANS TO MAKE THE WORLD A BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

Muslim bk1 Hadith 56: Faith has over seventy branches or over sixty branches, the most excellent of which is the declaration that there is only one Creator of all that exists, and the humblest of which is the, removal of what is injurious from the path:.. It means there is an uncreated (no beginning or end), that creates everything. The uncreated does not visit the creation but with infinite knowledge, power etc knows everything including the present past and future of created things and is beyond our imagination.
